The Call to Leadership

All leaders share this characteristic: a relentless willingness to get the job done.

All great leaders share this characteristic: a relentless willingness to get the job done right.

October's Leadership Development Seminar was, by no surprise, a huge success. Directed and attended by some of the finest in our Company, LDS was an opportunity for our leaders to collaborate with others, implement new techniques and ideas, fine-tune their leadership skills and learn the fundamentals of great leadership.

AIL/NILICO applauds all those who have answered the call to become a leader in our Company. I can attest that becoming a leader is not simple, nor is it easy. However, the rewards are priceless. Not only do our leaders find success for themselves, they also find success for their peers and develop lifelong relationships characterized by admiration and honor.

We invest time and resources in our leaders because this fact is evident: our Company has reached this pivotal point of success because of the people with whom we associate. We are confident that we have the best and the brightest at AIL/NILICO. That is why we offer seminars and workshops where you can advance, improve and prosper.

Many use the excuse that there is little opportunity to become a leader. But, at AIL/NILICO, this couldn't be further from the truth. Our constant growth and recent expansion plans have opened leadership avenues for those who have the resolve to rise to the top.

When you choose to lead, you will find windows of opportunity open in all directions, giving you the power, confidence and accessibility to truly succeed. Our numbers in Quarter 3 were absolutely remarkable, made possible only by leadership that exemplified the principles of perseverance, dedication and determination.

We want every leader to have the opportunity to be the best they can be. If you have the relentless willingness to get the job done right, consider attending a Leadership Development Seminar and stepping up, so others can step in. Turn to page 10 to read about the success and inspiration of last month's LDS.

American Income Life Insurance Company has been meeting working families' needs for over half a century. We are a leader in the union insurance market and are totally committed to meeting the needs of union members through personal one-on-one service and complete Home Office customer support. You can count on AIL to do what it says it will do.

LOOK FOR THE ASTERISK

The asterisks, shown throughout the magazine, indicate that place will be a year-to-date award winner. The Producers, who will be recognized at the 2010 Awards Presentation, are: the top SGA from each category based on the percentage of Net ALP objective, the top three PR Managers, the top two PR Representatives from each category, the top two RGAs, the top five MGAs, the top five GAs, the top SA, and the top ten Individual Producers. You can view the 2010 Convention Qualifications online at www.aillife.com or www.nilife.com. Check your production! If there is an asterisk by your position, you could be on your way to New York City, staying at the fabulous Sheraton New York Hotel and Towers, and appearing on stage! The convention will be held May 16-19, 2010.

DEAR FUTURE SGA

SGA Career Track

Whether you are new to our Company or even someone with tenure, have you ever wondered what you had to accomplish in order to be promoted to State General Agent? The answer is simple—achieve these three levels.

If you have any questions, please feel free to set up a conference call with me and your State General Agent. I look forward to seeing you achieve your dream of financial security!

— Larry Strong
Vice President,
Agency Leadership Development

Level 1: Qualifying

For you to qualify you must meet the following criteria:

- 2 years of continual service with AIL/NILICO
- Production of at least $225,000 of 1st Six Mo. Agent production (Last 12 Months)
- Must have a 4-Month Retention Rate of 68% or higher (Please note that although you need to qualify to be promoted, we will begin the process as soon as you achieve the production level regardless of quality factor.)

Level 2: Preparing for an Offer

Once you qualify by achieving the above criteria, a Personal Leadership Profile will be sent to your home address with a copy to your SGA. Also, we will schedule a conference call between you, your SGA, your SGA's Director, and myself to determine your interest in being a SGA and to initiate a consistent communication process between you, your SGA and the Home Office.

Level 3: Getting an Offer

I will contact you to:

- Let you know what territory/territories we are offering
- Discuss who may be going with you. (Your SGA can protect one person who they feel they need to keep.) This process has been in place since January 2008, resulting in 11 SGA promotions, and there will be many more.

Work/Life Balance: Are You in Control?

Work/life balance is a broad concept comparing the proper prioritizing between career and ambition on one hand, with pleasure, leisure, family and spiritual development on the other.

As the separation between work and home life has diminished, this concept has become more relevant than ever before. Related but broader terms include “lifestyle balance” and “life balance.”

I don't know why so many articles on work/life balance seem to focus on people who suddenly decide they've had it with working all the time and within one hour quit their job, buy a yacht or a jet, grab their family, their best friends or their dog, and travel the world for a year or two. They then get touted as the role model for the rest of us who either like our work, can't leave right now, or just want to enjoy life at home. Besides, being in balance is more than just what you do with your time; it's also how you feel and think all of the time.

The reality is that wherever you go, you take yourself with you. I can go to the woods for a week to meditate, but if I've never meditated, gained some inner peace or learned to be happy with who I am rather than what I do, I'll go to the woods and count the minutes until I can leave or find some way to distract myself from myself.

Life balance is more than how we spend our time; it's also how we feel about that time and how present we are each moment. It doesn't always take one major event to want to change or to know something is not right for you. It's often a series of things. It is something you need to “feel” and understand.

Our business both at the Sales and Management/Leadership levels constantly challenges us when it comes to balance. The great thing about the opportunity this Company offers is any sacrifices you make in the present ALWAYS pay off with increased income in the future along with, most importantly, more time. It has been 22 years since I joined the Company, and I have seen this Company provide amazing things in the area of “Quality of Life” for so many people who were willing to learn the art of time management and goal setting!

Take an assessment of what you do and how you live your life. As you assess your life, if you find any areas that you don't like, make a conscious choice to change and be open and willing to try a new way. Don't wait, start today.

Remember:
“Work hard and play hard. But don't confuse the two.”

God Bless You.

Fall 2009 Career Agent Council Meeting

Attendees: Joey Kennedy (Altig-Orlovic), Daniel Potilechio (Bob Olson), Max Quasem (Cohen-Cohen), Scott Remmey (Eric Giglione), Joaquin Santos (Jatoft-Foti), Helen Taylor (Altig-Orlovic), Lily Tchen (Cohen-Cohen), Robert Ulreich (Jatoft-Foti) and Freida Yakubov (Williams-Zophin)

The members of the Career Agent Council, comprised of top producers of AIL & NILICO, recently met in Las Vegas to discuss current trends and practices they are finding to be successful in the field.

“The Career Agent Council members know that the great secret of success is self-discipline – getting yourself to do what you really need to do. They understand that success comes from taking charge of yourself and feeling proud of yourself when you do. We appreciate them sharing this state of mind and sharing their knowledge with us for the benefit of every agent in the Company.” -Domenico Bertini

SCHOOL HOUSE ROCK

Back to School with LDS!

Considering going back to school? We did!

Some of our top managers joined forces this fall to attend the Leadership Development Seminar. With the guidance of our executives, directors and SGAs, attendees were taught fundamental principles that will help them lead their teams to success. Congratulations to all those who attended! We look forward to seeing others in the future!

Domenico Bertini "The Fall LDS ended with a Big Bang! You will hear an explosion as soon as these newly-formed leaders head back into their agencies and get in touch with their teams. Eighty-four participants will account for a nuclear explosion in the recruiting and training of new agents. You are the best!!!"

Marcus Smith "One of the best parts of LDS was having the privilege of watching an award winner from our Agency speak. Pat "the Bulldog" Benure did a great job. It's always a privilege to be surrounded by some of the best at LDS."

Great Job! A++

A Salute to the CEO

September 20th marked Roger Smith's 10 year anniversary as CEO of American Income. The following is an excerpt of the speech made by Scott Smith at the Anniversary luncheon:

As many of you know, AIL/NILICO recently celebrated the ten year anniversary of our President and CEO, Roger Smith. This was a proud day for all of us because it gave us the opportunity to recognize Roger for all of the amazing things he has done for the Company.

For those of you who do not work as closely with Roger as some of us, allow me to assure you of his steadfast values, his work ethic, and his dedication to the working family by illustrating his devotion to AIL. While we are currently celebrating Roger's ten years as CEO, the truth is that he has been a part of this Company's life since 1975. That is a lot of time dedicated to the rights and betterment of labor. During this time, he had run the gamut of titles with AIL/NILICO – everything from an Agent to an SGA.

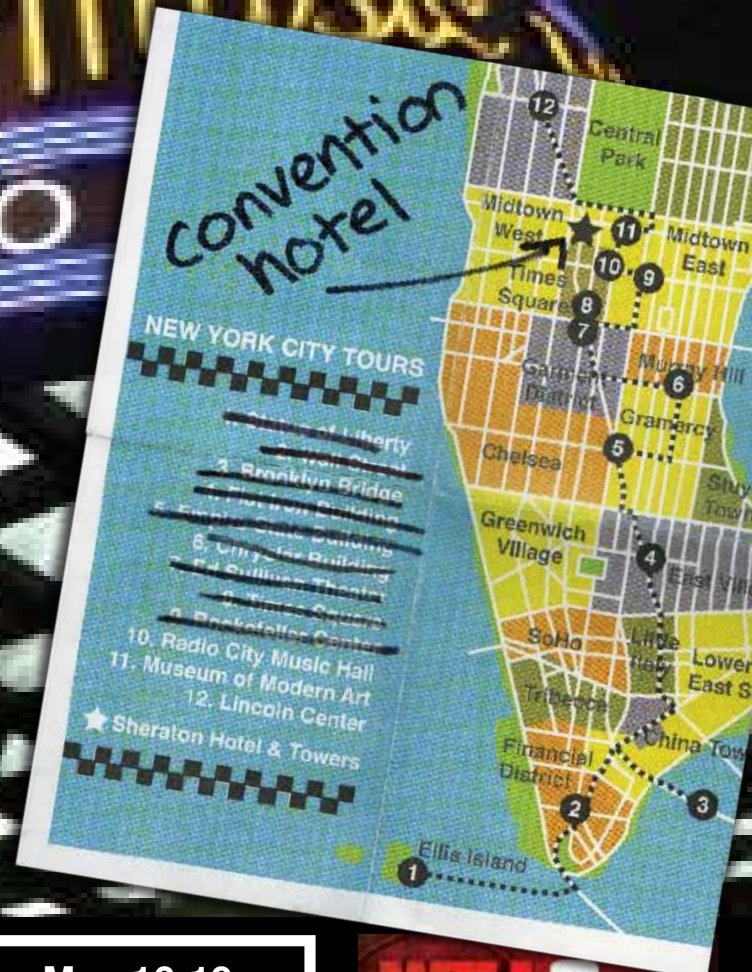

Once he came into the position of leadership for the whole Company, it was clearly evident that Roger's decisions were made with not only the profitability of the Company in mind, but also the success of every single member of the AIL/NILICO family. These decisions not only affect our lives, but also the lives of millions of working families.

As you can guess, this is quite a responsibility, and Roger handles it exceptionally well. This has been recognized publicly before, and it will be acknowledged again in November when he will receive the prestigious Eleanor Roosevelt Award, which is presented annually to a company leader in America whose leadership embodies fairness in the workplace and respect for workers' rights.

So let us all congratulate Roger for this tremendous achievement. We are proud to have our Company's leader recognized for these attributes, and we thank him for being a strong and fair leader to all of us. Here's to another ten years!
